

Andean Ancestral Ceremonies

Half day

OVERVIEW

Experience this ancestral Inca ceremonial retreat, which will allow you to see a new perspective of life and develop physically and spiritually. The celebration of Pachamama has a mystical connection with the origin of the universe and human beings. According to this ancestral belief, Mother Earth takes energy from the cosmos, the universe, time and space.

The name Pacha derives from this energy source, and through this link there is a deep respect for its integrity. From this energetic source derives the name Pacha and it is through this link that there is a deep respect for its integrity. In the ceremony, created by the peoples of the central Andes, a series of offerings are made to celebrate the “protective” and fertile nature of the earth, which vary according to the region. The rituals of Pachamama Day have varied over time, taking different forms and enriched with the cultural, historical and social legacies of different communities. Depending on the ancestral customs of each town, the method of celebration varies.

● ANCESTRAL CEREMONIES

At 9:00am we will pick you up from your hotel to transfer to an especial in the South Valley of Cusco, approximately half an hour from Cusco. Upon arrival we will quickly settle to do the coca leaf reading which lasts between 45 minutes or an hour depending on the number of questions that you have. The next ceremony will be the Andean cleansing and flourishing ceremony, which is important to remove negative energies and blocks. The last ceremony, a traditional Andean offering to Mother Earth which allows you to give thanks to the Mother Earth, the Apus for all that has been received. You are also able to ask for your well-being and for that of your loved ones creating a sense of harmony and union with nature and God. We are going to return to Cusco at 1 pm approximately.
